Begin by reading Matthew 26:47-56.

REFLECT

Throughout life, there are significant moments of disappointment, discouragement, and disillusionment. Problems and tensions loom over us in relationships, at work, in school, and beyond. Jesus had his share of tensions, too. In spite of the betrayal by Judas, Jesus remained sovereign - committed to His eternal purpose. When we lean into this truth, our faith grows, knowing that our hope is secure.

- Read Matthew 26:47-56. Why might the disciples have felt helpless in this passage?
- Read Matthew 26:53. Have you had moments of helplessness where you felt not even God could deliver you or intervene? What led you to feel that way?
- How does your faith grow when you acknowledge that Jesus is bigger than any concern?
- Read Matthew 26:54 and Matthew 16:21-23. What is the eternal purpose that Jesus came to fulfill? How does this impact your faith and life?
- Read and Matthew 26:55. How does Jesus bring about divine redemption?
- Galatians 3:13-14. Where do you need to trust in Jesus and lean upon His divine redemption in response to problems or threats?
